Rationality and Civilization
New World Order

(If changes the meaning.)

(it doesn't fully reflect the central theme)

No one is perfect. The thinking of every people affects the whole world. In past, the people of one country could do much harm to the distant country. But now the whole world is linked through new thinking.

N.B.:

① Last line "linked ... thinking" should be replaced to "connected by modern thinking" for better scoring.

② You omitted these key ideas:-

- Civilized thoughts and noble deeds bring the world closer to civilization.
- Uncivilized action cause suffering.
- Example of cruel king
- "One World" concept.

Never miss these points.

Feedback:

Suggestion: Include every key points of the original passage in a logical sequence, use accurate grammar and tense, and avoid changing the author's intended meaning while remaining concise.

Areas for improvement:

- * Include all major ideas from the original passage, not just some.
- * Avoid grammatical errors such as —
"Every people", "part", and incorrect tense
- * Express ideas more precisely without changing author's meaning.
